

Follow the same pattern for the common terminals using black wire. When you have completed all the connections, connect to power and the LEDs on all the BSC-1s should light up.