

Detection

Secure one pair of terminal strips for each signal block to the outer edge of the board. Using green wire, feed a wire from each terminal to the nearest BSC-1 with the corresponding number for that signal block. then daisy chain from that point to all the other BSC-1s with the same block number.