

Connect the modular connectors from each J1 to each J2. Follow the routing map in the Track Configuration Library carefully. These modular connectors are included in all Custom Signal's packages. If you need longer connectors, they are available from Custom Signals.

